From its birth, Elim Fellowship has strived to become a worldwide revival fellowship.

The leaders who have gone before us have always been on the cutting edge of what the Holy Spirit has been doing in the earth. Today, we carry on the desire for revival by strengthening the leader, to equip the Church, that we might reach the world.

I have chosen the word "IGNITE" to represent the theme for this year's May Leadership Conference. I know that God wants to stir up all generations to fully function in their gifting, anointing, and purpose. I'm convinced that this year's faculty will be bringing a fresh word to our lives that will challenge, encourage, and empower you as you lead your family and ministries.

Join me this May as we all are ignited by the power of the Holy Spirit to move forward in our destiny in Him.

— Dr. Ronald Burgio, President, Elim Fellowship

Speakers

Dr. Ron Burgio is the President of Elim Fellowship. He is an alumnus of Elim Bible Institute and a graduate of Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester, New York. He has an earned Doctorate of Ministry from the School of Bible Theology in San Jacinto, California. Ron has been in full time ministry since 1978 and is senior pastor of Love Joy Gospel Church in Lancaster, New York. Ron and his wife, Judy, have four children.

Bishop Kenneth C. Ulmer serves as the Senior Pastor-Teacher of Faithful Central Bible Church in Inglewood, California. Under his leadership, Faithful Central has grown from 350 people to more than 13,000 since 1982. Dr. Ulmer participated in the study of ecumenical liturgy and worship at Magdalene College at Oxford University in England. Today, he continues his studies at Christ Church and Wadham College at Oxford University. Dr. Ulmer has served on the Board of Directors of The Gospel Music Workshop of America, the Board of Trustees of Biola University, the Pastors Advisory Council for the City of Inglewood, and the Board of Trustees of Southern California School of Ministry. He is a founding board member of The King's College and Seminary. Dr. Ulmer and his wife, Togetta, have three children and 5 grandchildren.

Nancy Ortberg served as a teaching pastor for eight years at Willow Creek Community Church in South Barrington, Illinois, where she led Network, helping people identify their spiritual gifts and find a place of service in the Church, and Axis, a weekly gathering for the 18- to 20-something generation. She is a founding partner of Teamworx², a business consulting firm that provides practical and compelling sessions to leaders and teams. Nancy is passionate about helping people connect their faith with their everyday lives. A regular contributor to Rev! Magazine, Nancy is the author of Looking for God: An Unexpected Journey through Tattoos, Tofu, & Pronouns, and Unleashing the Power of Rubber Bands: Lessons in Non-Linear Leadership. She and her husband, John, live in the Bay Area and have three children.

Bob Sorge served as an Elim pastor for 17 years in Canandaigua, New York, as well as a music director at Elim Bible Institute. Now he bases his writing and traveling ministry in Kansas City, Missouri, where he lives with his wife, Marci, and three children. Author of the widely-acclaimed Exploring Worship, Bob has written numerous books that are largely the product of his own spiritual journey. Among his most noted works are The Fire Of Delayed Answers; Pain, Perplexity, and Promotion (an interpretation of the book of Job); and Secrets of the Secret Place.

Paul Johansson, past president of Elim Bible Institute, currently serves as its Chancellor. He has been with Elim since graduating in 1956. Paul earned a Master's Degree from New York University. Prior to coming to EBI he served as President of New York School of Urban Ministry, a school he started in 1984. He has pastored in North America, and has served as a missionary in East Africa, where he co-founded The Nairobi Pentecostal Bible College. He has also been on the staff of EBI as instructor, Dean of Men, Dean of Students and Vice President. Paul was appointed to the Elim Fellowship Council of Elders in 1971. He and his wife, Gloria, have two children.

Mike Cavanaugh is the Vice President of Elim Fellowship and has served on the Council of Elders since 1998. Mike is the author of the book The Power and Purpose of Singleness, and has appeared on Christian television. He has founded several ministries, including Mobilized to Serve (MTS), a national ministry to single adults; Brothers and Sisters In Christ (BASIC), a charismatic College ministry that mobilizes local churches to reach out to college students; and Pastor's Study Break, intensive workshops to strengthen those in pastoral ministry. A graduate of Elim Bible Institute and Roberts Wesleyan College, Mike and his wife, Terri, have three adult children who are all in full-time ministry.

2012 Leadership Conference

Elim Fellowship

Workshops

Joe Jansen: Igniting Your Small Church for Big Church Influence

With 20 years of pastoral ministry in a small community, Joe has discovered key principles to unlock personal joy, excel in your calling, challenge personal growth, and ignite your church to influence its community. As EF's US Ministries Director, Joe instructs pastors in being comfortable within their specific calling, temperament, and gifts. He and his wife, Joann, have three adult children.

Doug Cowburn & Bill Simmons: Igniting Church Health

Church health begins with the health of its leadership, and a growing church needs a team and a strategy. Discover key principles and practices that will ignite the health of your church.

Judy Burgio: The Igniting Power of Ministry and Family

If you are in ministry, you know the impact ministry has had on your family—positively and negatively. Having served for 27 years alongside her husband, Ron, at Love Joy Church, Judy has recognized the importance of connecting the whole family with ministry. How do you balance ministry and time with family? How do you allow ministry to be a part of the family? How does involving the family impact the ministry in a greater way? Judy will answer these questions and more.

Joshua Finley: Igniting Communication in a Modern Culture

How do you effectively communicate a culture where people listen with their eyes and think with their feelings? Pastors are desperate to get the transforming truth of God's Word into the lives of the people they lead. In this workshop, Joshua will focus on keys to better communication from the pulpit, as well as strategic planning before you even get there. Joshua is the lead pastor of Elim Gospel Church in Lima, NY.

Wayne Hedlund: Igniting Team Leadership in Your Church

Team meetings often are boring, ineffective, and unproductive. This workshop will focus on team leadership and include simple principles and practical insights into leading meetings that stimulate meaningful conversation, constructive conflict, deeper relationships and greater results. Wayne is the Associate U.S. Ministries Director at EF and blogger for church leaders at www.transformingleader.org.

Jack & Cherie Minton: Igniting Your Church for Disaster Outreach

Jack and Cherie Minton founded Hope Force International (HFI) to mobilize Christians to become leading responders to the plight of global suffering. Jack serves as the CEO and President of HFI, and Cherie as Executive Vice-President. The Mintons reside in Brentwood, Tennessee. They have two children and three grandchildren.

Chris & Carol Ball: Igniting Mentoring Ministries in the Local Church

Pastors for 23 years, Chris and Carol Ball have recognized that one of the most effective ways to build confident, courageous leaders is by entering into a mentoring relationship that challenges people to follow Christ at a higher level. As a result, young leaders have travelled the world with these pastors and are currently serving in key roles throughout their church. This workshop will educate you on how to identify, involve, and ignite young leaders for the future.

Laurie Crowley: Igniting Creativity in Youth Ministry

Make creativity come alive in your planning and communication. Learn how to position yourself in an environment where your creativity can flourish—and gain a variety of practical techniques you can implement in your life and ministry. Laurie is the Youth Pastor at New Testament Christian Church, and a three-sport high school coach, in Rochester, NY.

Mike Kim: Igniting a Healthy Worship Ministry

Geared towards pastors and worship teams, Mike will cover team values, criteria, and culture as well as three areas vital to sustainable health and success in any local church worship ministry. Mike has served for years as a worship leader, youth pastor and worship pastor in the local church, and now ministers itinerantly based out of Piscataway, New Jersey.

New! Prophetic Ministry Session with Denny Cramer

Denny Cramer is a prophet to the nations and a seasoned seer in great demand both here and abroad. He has authored five insightful books; four have been published internationally. He also conducts a dynamic School of Prophecy, which has trained thousands of believers to be properly released into active prophetic ministry in their local church.

Panel Discussion: Igniting a Church Plant Movement

Statistics reveal that if the Church is going to evangelize the U.S. and make a place for leaders to move in their gifts, there must be a new emphasis on church planting. Even in this “megachurch” era, the Church is not growing through conversion. EF is committed to church planting. In this workshop, we will have a panel of church planters—Curtis & Eileen Stitt and Kent & Gina Murawski— who will share with you their most current insights.

Women’s Luncheon: “Kindle the Call”

Victoria Triano is the Senior Pastor of Christ Community Church in East Haddam, Connecticut, and the Director of Pastoral Care at both the Southington Care Center and the Orchards of Southington. She was dynamically saved in a Catholic convent and is a former probation officer and mayor. Victoria’s journey is uproarious and a wonder! She attended Master Seminary and did her post graduate work at Yale Divinity School before being ordained a minister in 2001. Pastor Victoria is credentialed with Elim Fellowship and serves as a W.I.L.L.O.W. Leader.

Worship at each Session

We are blessed to have a dynamic lineup of worship leaders this year. All Conference sessions will feature high-impact worship with great worship leaders, including Kelanie Gloeckler, Mike Kim, Jonathan Evans, Nathan Hinton, Dick Grout, and Jessica Freda.

Special Event: A Night of Worship with Kelanie Gloeckler

Monday evening, starting at 7:00 pm

Kelanie is a prophetic worship leader and songwriter based in Jacksonville, Florida, where she is on staff at IHOP-Jax and New Life Christian Fellowship Church. With guitar in hand and eyes wide open, her passion and energy beckon all to press in for a deeper encounter with Jesus. Kelanie seeks to help the Body of Christ engage in a heart exchange with the Lord, encouraging worshippers to pour out their hearts to Him and to find out what is on His heart. The result is an explosive, corporate release of worship and intercession.

Tickets for this event will be sold separately from Leadership Conference registration.

- $10 online at itickets.com.
- Non-refundable service fees apply. www.itickets.com/events/280212.html
