What is Elim Fellowship?

Elim Fellowship

A CHRIST-CENTERED WORLDWIDE REVIVAL FELLOWSHIP

What is Elim Fellowship?

Elim Fellowship is about helping people fulfill their call to ministry. Our history gives us deep roots and stability that enables us to help those seeking to fulfill their destiny in ministry. Our passion to intentionally raise up a new generation of spiritual leaders keeps us connected to what God is doing today.

Elim Fellowship began in 1933 as an informal fellowship of churches, ministers and missionary endeavors. Today it is committed to relevance and effectiveness in helping individuals and churches fulfill their potential as world changers.

Being of Pentecostal conviction and Charismatic orientation, Elim Fellowship has grown in its vision to provide a valued credential for ministry and vital connections for pastors, ministers, missionaries, churches and parachurch ministries.

Elim Fellowship has two main ministries:

UNITED STATES MINISTRIES (USM)

is dedicated to helping United States-based ministers, churches and ministries fulfill the vision God has given them. This is accomplished through ...

Credentialing: Helping each person receive the ministerial credential necessary for them to fulfill the call God has put on their lives.

Church Network: The Elim Fellowship Network of Affiliated Churches is not a denomination, but a service-oriented network bound together by relationship, shared values and mutual benefit.

Ministry Affiliation: Often, ministries want to be associated with something larger than themselves for accountability and support. We offer an affiliated ministry status to meet that need.

Personal Support Raising: Getting the financial backing for your ministry requires training and assistance in how to properly relate to both donors and the government. Through our Home Missionary Program we help people to raise support for their ministries.

INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES (IM)

recruits, trains and releases International Workers, giving administrative and member care support in the process of going, and in the fulfillment of the International Worker's call.

IM also helps local churches by coaching and training in missions and missionary support. There are opportunities to serve that are short-term as well as career. This is accomplished through:

Recruitment: IM works to recruit people with a call to fulfill the Great Commission internationally. This is done through conferences, missions conventions, church education and personal interaction.

Coaching: Providing training in such vital areas as relationships with other IM workers, fundraising, and cultural adjustments are just some of what is provided.

Financial Services: Including receipting, financial planning, tax preparation and donor relations.

Crisis Care: Providing accountability, support and crisis care for international workers through International Field Directors and a dedicated home office.

Leadership Development

Elim Fellowship is committed to the leadership development of all of our credential holders. This is accomplished through:

Leadership Conferences: All through the year, Elim Fellowship organizes training events for our members. This equipping culminates annually in our Leadership Conference, where world-class leaders are brought in to give us the best inspiration and training available for Christian leaders today.

Resources: Each year thousands of dollars are spent on sending resources to all of our credential holders.

Coaching: Leaders in Elim Fellowship have years of experience in working with people and accomplishing ministry objectives. These leaders provide coaching input where desired.

Networking: In many areas, Elim Fellowship is able to provide monthly meetings for ministers interested in accountable and inspirational relationships with other ministers.

Credibility: An Elim Fellowship ministerial credential has come to be identified with the highest level of integrity and faithfulness. In a day when people doubt the character of ministers, to be associated with Elim Fellowship is to begin with a foundation of credibility.
